

Spain: Antitrust lawyer Pedro Callol goes solo

By CPI on September 16, 2014 · No Comment

Pedro Callol has started his own specialty law firm to focus on competition matters, a move that saw the lawyer and his team leave Roca Junyent in Madrid.

Callol launched Callol Law to focus on competition matters within areas including consumer goods, TMT and distribution.

The lawyer had previously lead investigations and legal proceedings concerning cartel cases in several markets. Callol also has experience advising state aid and abuse of dominance cases, and led one of the first leniency-related proceedings within Spain, say reports.

Full content: Who's Who Legal

Want more news? Subscribe to CPI's free daily newsletter for more headlines and updates on antitrust developments around the world.

Spain: Antitrust lawyer Pedro Callol goes solo added by CPI on September 16, 2014
View all posts by CPI →

RECOMMENDED FOR YOU

US: Oracle sees a $12.1bn buyout deal of NetSuite closing Monday

US: Delta-Aeromexico venture tentatively approved

US: Phillips Nizer adds antitrust lawyer to its Litigation Practice

US: Antitrust probe targets Generic Drug makers

US: Taxis' monopoly suit against Uber hits roadblock

UK: Dropbox and Google commit to 'fairer' deals for customers

EU: Dow-DuPont merger review suspended yet again

US: Tyson disputes price-fixing lawsuit allegations

US: Utahns urge Senator to oppose Bayer-Monsanto merger

Most Read

-

Italy: Antitrust agency p... Italy's antitrust wate...

469 views
-

US: Justice Department su... The Justice Department...

321 views
-

EU: Google formally rejec... Google on Thursday for...

268 views
-

US: Former FTC assistant ... Former Federal Trade C...

230 views
-

US: The Senate summoned t... Despite striking an $8...

228 views
-

EU: German minister aims ... Germany's justice mini...

180 views
-

US: Does AT&T-Time W... AT&T's takeover of...

179 views

More Articles

About CPI

More About Us
CPI Terms & Conditions
Our Editorial Policy
Editorial Team

Get Started

Contact Us
Advertise With Us
RSS Feed

Antitrust Events

There are no upcoming events at this time.

Login

Username

Password

☒ Remember Me

Login →

Forgot my password