Antitrust specialists from the EU's largest jurisdictions focus on sensitive issues in public and private antitrust enforcement in Europe, and provide their insights on the latest legislative and case law developments. Topics include:

- public and private enforcement in the EU; the interaction between EU and national law;
- antitrust damages litigation in Europe: the national implementation of the EU Damages Directive, relevant cases;
- enforcement priorities of various competition authorities;
- sensitive aspects of antitrust investigations: leniency (incl. tension with antitrust damages claims), settlement procedures, case law on dawn raids, etc.
- other key recent developments.

Speakers:

- James Musgrove (McMillan LLP, Toronto) (moderator)
- Pedro Callol (Callol, Coca & Asociados, SLP, Madrid)
- Stephanie Birmanns (SZA Schilling Zutt & Anschutz, Brussels)
- Joséphine Fourquet (Paul Hastings LLP, Paris)
- Mark Gardner (Kirkland & Ellis LLP, London)

Sponsored by the International Committee of the Section of Antitrust Law.

Free to Section members, government and non-profit employees and students.
