

CALLOL | COCA

Press Release

We are glad to announce that Eduardo Coca has decided to join forces with Callol Law's team to form CALLOL|COCA a specialist law firm focusing on competition/regulation, specialist litigation and venture capital/high growth industries.

Callol Law was formed in 2014 as a spin-off of the entire EU/Competition law group of Roca Junyent, one of Spain's largest national law firms, where Pedro Callol was the competition partner (<http://callolcoca.com/our-team/pedro-callol/>). For press coverage of that move, please refer to our online Press Room at <http://callolcoca.com/press-room/>

Eduardo Coca is a well-seasoned specialist in his field and hitherto a partner with Olswang. For details on Eduardo Coca's practice please see <http://callolcoca.com/our-team/eduardo-coca/>.

Pedro Callol and Eduardo Coca share a common past as fee earners with a UK 'magic circle' law firm, where they met and worked together in many deals.

As this announcement takes place, CALLOL|COCA is completing its installation in a new office in Madrid's premier business area.

Our new contact details are as follows:
